The University of Tennessee Southern

Adjunct Clinical Instructor

The University of Tennessee Southern invites applications for a part-time position as an adjunct clinical instructor

Primary responsibilities are to provide clinical instruction to baccalaureate nursing students.

Minimum Qualifications

- Completion of an accredited masters-level nursing education program (MSN) with nursing experience in the clinical area to be assigned.
- A current active unencumbered license as a registered nurse in the State of Tennessee.
- Previous teaching experience in a nursing program preferred.
- Excellent written and oral communication; and analytical skills.
- Functional ability to carry out clinical responsibilities.
- Competence in personal computer applications; word processing, spreadsheet, database, and email. Experience with electronic medical records preferred.

To apply, please visit: https://utsouthern.edu/about/employment-opportunities

All application materials may be sent electronically to:
Michelle Decker, Division Chair of Nursing mdecke10@utsouthern.edu