THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE SOUTHERN

THE OFFICE OF TITLE IX

March 31, 2023

Dear UT Southern community and colleagues,

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month, and a fitting time to share UT Southern's Annual Report on Sexual Misconduct, Relationship Violence and Stalking. This report is intended to provide the campus with information about UT Southern's overall Title IX compliance and prevention efforts and the number and type of reported incidents.

Our community is one that prioritizes a culture of respect. We care for one another here, and I am proud to say that our values are reflected in the report on the following pages. In 2022, we had one Formal Complaint of misconduct in relation to sexual misconduct, relationship violence, stalking, and retaliation as of this date. Additionally, the Office of Title IX fielded questions and concerns regarding related behaviors that did not rise to the level of a Title IX Formal Complaint. In these situations, we offer advice, refer resources, and help walk our Firehawks through their options both on and off campus. We also offer interventions where appropriate, and it is our hope that these efforts are contributing to the low number of Formal Complaints at UT Southern. We continue to work to increase campus awareness and education efforts, with the understanding that when students understand the process, they may be more likely to make a report to the University. In addition, when faculty and staff are aware of reporting obligations and resources, students' reports can be properly addressed.

As we move forward, we will continue to evaluate our Policy on Sexual Misconduct, Relationship Violence, Stalking, and Retaliation ("Policy"), procedures, and service to the campus. Our policies and procedures are reflective of the ever changing Title IX regulations.

If you have any questions or concerns about UT Southern's Title IX compliance or about Title IX in general after reading this report, please contact me. Thank you for your commitment to making our campus a safe and discrimination-free environment.

Sincerely,

MISSION & MODEL

The Office of Title IX at the University of Tennessee Southern seeks to provide a working, learning, and living environment free of sexual harassment.

Grounded in the social ecological model, our Title IX commitment emphasizes five key areas:

Policy. Our foundation is in the policy and procedures we follow.

Prevention. Our goal is to prevent sexual misconduct, relationship violence, stalking, and retaliation before they happen.

Supportive measures. Our promise is to provide appropriate supportive measures to individuals involved in the Title IX process.

Investigation and resolution. Our commitments to due process, campus safety, and encouraging reporting guide how we investigate and resolve reports.

Patterns and trends. Our responsibility is to utilize the best available research, evidence-based practice, and our own campus trends in our prevention and response efforts.

POLICY ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT, SEXUAL ASSAULT, DATING AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, AND STALKING

The primary purposes of the Policy are to:

- Define, eliminate, prevent, and remedy the effects of Prohibited Conduct
- Identify care, support, and reporting options for students and employees
- Explain the obligations of employees to report Prohibited Conduct to the University
- Identify the grievance procedures the University will follow to thoroughly, equitably, and promptly investigate and resolve reports of Prohibited Conduct

The updated policy is accessible at utsouthern.edu/about/title-ix along with additional information about campus procedures, training, and prevention programs related to prohibited conduct. The University will continue to review and update the policy annually to best serve our students, faculty, and staff.

TITLE IX COORDINATOR

Sarah Catherine Richardson is the University's Title IX Coordinator and oversees the University's response to reports of Prohibited Conduct, including investigations, supportive measures, and hearing procedures. The Title IX Coordinator also leads the University's educational and prevention efforts regarding Prohibited Conduct. The Title IX Coordinator can be reached at scrich@utsouthern.edu or via 931-424-4073.

PREVENTION, EDUCATION, AND TRAINING HIGHLIGHTS

Each fall, UT Southern provides new and updated training for our campus, both for Mandatory Reporters and for our wider UT Southern community. The trainings summarized below began in August 2022 so as to set priorities for the 2022-2023 Academic Year.

Faculty

Faculty members were trained both via live presentations and via K@TE (an online platform through the UT System). Thanks to the support from Dr. Judy Cheatham, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, a “highlight” of Title IX was included in faculty’s mandatory training on August 16, 2022.

54 FACULTY TRAINED*

94 STAFF TRAINED*

Staff

Staff members from all areas of the University also completed Title IX Mandatory Reporter training via K@TE. Mandatory reporters are employees who are required to report information about known or suspected Prohibited Conduct to the Office of Title IX. At UT Southern, that includes personnel from every department on campus.

Students

Student leaders on campus were trained to be resources for their peers regarding Prohibited Conduct and were educated on their own roles as Mandatory Reporters where applicable. UT Southern continued to focus on prevention and education for first-year students in particular through providing students with information regarding consent, reporting, and active bystander interventions. Working closely with the University’s First-Year Experience (FYE) program, the Title IX Coordinator was able to present an introductory presentation to new students before their first day of classes during Welcome Week in August 2022. FYE also hosted Lizzie Rice (program specialist from the Tennessee Coalition to End Domestic & Sexual Violence) during class sessions in October 2022 for Bystander Intervention.

Events

Hike the Hill in Heels - Inspired by a tradition from our friends in Knoxville, UT Southern hosted its first Hike the Hill event, a walk “up the hill” from our campus green to the gym. Around 175 students, faculty, staff, and community members joined and passed statistics regarding sexual assault in college along their way.

Sex Ed Slumber Parties - A collaboration between our mental health counselor, our Clinic’s nurse practitioner, and Residential Life, these events take place in residential hall lobbies and are a relaxed, informal way to discuss dating, relationships, and sexual health.

Taco Bout Consent - 57 students visited a Chipotle bar to assemble tacos and bowls where each ingredient represented a different aspect of consent. Students also got sexual assault prevention month bracelets and free stickers promoting consent. Center of Hope was also present to provide education and support.

Activity Fair - Representatives from Center of Hope, Tennessee Coalition to End Domestic and Sexual Violence, and Tennessee Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services all graciously visited campus for our annual Activity Fair in late August to provide education, resources, and support.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month Event - Center of Hope partnered with the Office of Title IX to mark Domestic Violence Awareness Month in October. In a tabling event on October 5, community members were invited to sign a pledge to prevent domestic violence, paint one fingernail to show solidarity with survivors, and make a sign about the #1thing they will do to prevent domestic violence in our community. 63 students, plus a variety of faculty and staff members, visited the table.
